

Father Cuschieri Award

In 1987, Father Cuschieri, a professor at St. Augustine's Seminary, gave ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to our diocese and requested that the yearly interest accumulated would be awarded to a young person between the ages of seven (7) and eighteen (18). The young person nominated must have been a student for at least part of the previous twelve month period in a primary, elementary, or high school within the Diocese of Grand Falls. This young person must have accomplished a humanitarian act towards another human being. Deadline for nominations is April 31, 2018. The guidelines, nomination sheets, and information on the award are available at your parish office.

Parish Council has been endeavoring to formulize things within the Parish. Therefore, beginning next week, we will be including a registration form for all parishioners to complete. This will provide Parish Council and the diocese with much needed information about our congregation.
